Checklist for New College Parents

If you haven't already discussed these important topics with your student, now is a great time to stress the many factors that come with a student's transition to college.

- Living away from home
- Teaching your student how to do laundry, iron a shirt, and sew on a button
- Talking about drug and alcohol use and your expectations
- Stressing the importance of locking doors
- Managing finances
- Discussing how to manage a credit or debit card wisely
- Planning a college budget and discuss how money should be spent
- Asking your student to photocopy everything in his/her wallet for your records
- Managing time
- Discussing school as a priority
- Having your student bring a planner to keep up with assignments, appointments, and events
- Encouraging your student to get involved with an activity that interests them
- Keeping in touch
- Setting clear expectations of communication between you and your student
- Staying in touch with the College through the Parents' Association and the monthly parent eNewsletter, Trails Home

Medical Services

Prescott College is pleased to partner with Yavapai Regional Medical Center (YRMC) to provide medical services to our students. The Family Medicine office at 1050 Gail Gardner Way is the designated service provider for Prescott College students. There are four board certified physicians committed to compassionate, quality, evidence-based medicine, and ready to serve. Appointments are available on the same or next day of the student's call for service. Co-pays and deductibles are based on student's insurance plans. For information about making a first appointment, please contact the Student Life Office at (928) 350-1005 or studentlife@prescott.edu for required forms. After the initial appointment, all patient contact will be directly with the Family Medicine office.

New Book Features Prescott College

The University Press of Kentucky is pleased to announce the release of Fields of Learning: The Student Farm Movement in North America, edited by Laura Sayre and Sean Clark. The book provides case studies of the 15 most influential student farms through North America to give a history of the movement and provide lessons that each farm can teach the broader agricultural and educational communities. Chapter 10 features Prescott College and is written by faculty member Tim Crews. You can get more information about the book here: http://www.kentuckypress.com/live/title_detail.php?titleid=2625.

Life is a River

Picture by Environmental Studies faculty member Walt Anderson

Prescott College Admissions unveils its new short film Life is a River about the College and you are among the first to be invited to view it!

Back in October of last year Admissions had a professional videographer (also father of a student) on campus filming. We asked him to create a video that would help prospective students and families learn more about the College, not just facts and figures like most college videos, but one that would communicate the more ethereal aspects of what happens here at Prescott College. We wanted the film to leave viewers smiling, feeling inspired, and help them make an informed decision about going forward with the College. We believe he accomplished that.

We are very excited to unveil the final version. Please take 15 minutes and check it out.

A Most Interesting College

The Fiske Guide to Colleges 2012 listed several environmentally-focused colleges including Prescott College. The Huffpost College column saw fit to pull out the top thirteen from the book it found most interesting – and we’re one of them!

Message from Laurie Silver, Vice President of Student Affairs

It’s my pleasure to welcome parents to the Prescott College community. As the Vice President for Student Affairs, I am committed to providing our students with the essential services and programs for creating a successful living and learning environment. With 25-plus years working in college student services and development, I am constantly rewarded with the opportunity to have a significant impact on so many students’ lives.

The Student Life staff offer a number of services including Housing and Residence Life, Student Leadership and Events, Student Government and Organizations, Educational Access and Disability, and Counseling. Students who are experiencing any kind of difficulty or challenge or just have a question are invited to seek assistance from our staff. Students are also encouraged to become involved in campus life by participating in student clubs, organizations, and other leadership opportunities. The Office of Student Life is located in the Student Life Center.

On Thursday, June 30, 2011, faculty, staff, students, friends of the College, neighbors, and community leaders gathered to celebrate the groundbreaking of Prescott College’s new student housing. Campus tours and refreshments were available at the Garvey Welcome Center along with a drum procession to the housing site, speeches by Prescott College President Kristin R. Woolever, Trustee and alumnus Richard Ach, and Prescott's Mayor Marlin Kuykendall.

“‘It’s a win-win situation for all involved,’” says Jack Herring, Dean of On-Campus Undergraduate Programs at Prescott College. He explains that the school has seen a shift in the on-campus student body over the past 10 years. “More and more of our students are first-time college students coming to us straight from home. There’s a need for a lot of transitional support as these young people start their journey into adulthood. The housing is an integral and tangible piece of that support system.”

Research demonstrates that new students who live in college housing are often more successful in completing their studies. Additionally, revenue generated from housing fees will feed directly back into the College’s operational budget, providing added financial stability and the foundation for further institutional development – expanded curricular offerings, added student support staff, and further renovations and improvements to the campus.

In close consult with architect Phil Weddle of Weddle Gilmore Architects, Haley Construction Co. of Prescott will build the 104-bed facility, situated on the western end of the campus in an area bounded by Willow, Garden, and Sheldon Streets and Western Avenue, to U.S. Green Building Council LEED Gold certification requirements.

The selection of Haley Construction demonstrates a “huge commitment to a Prescott business and to the community of Prescott,” says Prescott College President Dr. Kristin Woolever. “Additionally, with plans to employ practical and measurable green building design, construction, operations, and maintenance solutions, we’re walking our talk about the environment and sustainability.”

With construction scheduled to be completed by June 2012, the incoming class of freshman for the following fall term can expect homes that boast passive solar design, solar photovoltaic technology, and EnergyStar appliances and high-efficiency lighting fixtures, all of which mean the buildings will generate 100 percent of their own power and still contribute energy back into the grid.

Living “water conscious” in an arid desert state is built in for students with the use of low-flow water fixtures, rainwater catchment and storage for irrigation of landscaping, and expanded parking for cars and bicycles designed for water infiltration.

And that’s just the beginning. According to James Pittman, Director of Sustainability for Prescott College, “The school has a keen interest in developing policies for future construction and renovation that go beyond LEED certification in order to validate values and methods unique to the College’s culture and bioregional identity.”

Keeping in Touch

Sending Mail

Every On Campus Undergraduate Student currently enrolled at Prescott College is issued a student mailbox. Student mailboxes are housed within the Service Center, which is located on the first floor of the San Juan Building (Prescott Campus). Student mail and packages are distributed to student mailboxes throughout the course of the day. Students can check their student mailboxes Monday – Friday anytime between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. For your student’s protection a valid photo ID is required for all mail and package pickups (no exceptions). Valid forms of photo ID include: Prescott College Student ID, Passport, or State Issued Driver’s License/Identification Card. When sending mail and packages to your student, please utilize the following address formats to expedite the handling process:

During Wilderness Orientation: (For dare letters/packages going to students out in the field)

Students Full First and Last Name (No Nicknames, Please)

Questions Regarding Mail?
Please direct all mail questions to Service Center personnel at: (877) 350-2100 ext. 2200, or by e-mailing: servicecenter@prescott.edu.

E-mail
All students are issued a Prescott College e-mail address through the technology department. Typically, student e-mail addresses are first letter of student's first name + last name@prescott.edu. So, for example, John Doe's email address would be jdoe@prescott.edu. Please check with your son or daughter for their address.

Emergencies
In case of emergency, you can call the Resident Undergraduate Dean’s Office at (877) 350-2100 ext. 2000.

Residential Life Coordinator Assistance
In just a few weeks, Prescott College will welcome students back to campus! Preparing to move and start classes is always time consuming and usually comes with some anxiety. Luckily, securing housing here in Prescott doesn’t have to be difficult or overwhelming. Residential Life Coordinator, Jessica Truscott is available to help students seeking off-campus housing by offering several resources and help every step along the way. Once housing is secured, Prescott College offers a Guarantor’s Agreement assuring that the College stands behind the student and that the students’ obligation will be met. Additionally, this agreement secures Jessica as mediator should an off-campus student need help working with a landlord or roommates. For students who have been unable to obtain housing, a Housing Fair is scheduled for Tuesday, August 23 from 10 a.m. to noon at the Crossroad Community room. Here, students will be able to meet people who have space for rent. So, if you’re a student still needing housing or if you have a space to fill, contact Jessica for more information. Students are highly encouraged to secure housing before leaving for orientation in the field. Jessica Truscott (928) 350-1005 jtruscott@prescott.edu

Welcome from the On-Campus Undergraduate Admissions Office
Dear PC Parents,
We’ve spent many months in conversation with thousands of students from across the country, and it’s your student that we invited to become a part of our community and who will join us in a few short weeks. Motivated. Self-directed. A clear (or nearly clear) purpose. A personal philosophy in line with that of the College. A desire to make a difference in the world. Prescott College is the right and perfect place for your student and we know he/she will do great things!

We’d also like to extend an invitation to you; next time you are on campus, please stop by to visit with us. We’d love to meet you and take you on a tour of campus. Or if any of your friends or family have questions about what Prescott College offers, send them our way! You can reach us at (877) 350-2100.

Amazon Kindle Winner

Congratulations to Steven Kiel the winner of a new Amazon Kindle! As a past parent of Alumna Lauren Kiel ’04, he continues to support our community by donating to the Annual Fund for Academic Excellence. We appreciate all 139 donors, who donated $25 or more May 1 through June 30, 2011 to be eligible for the Amazon Kindle drawing. Our community had an amazing and successful year for giving and we look forward to a remarkable new fiscal year.
Your donation helps our students today! You have many ways to give to Prescott College.
