

March 2018

Greetings from Sturgis Robinson '75

My Fellow Alumni,

For those of you who do not know me, I graduated in the last class at the old campus in 1975. I promptly left Prescott and the College forever...

...until I returned in 1990 eventually becoming one of the founders of the current iteration of the Prescott College Alumni Association and then a member of the Board of Trustees of the College. In 1998, in a turn of events that I (and many others) still find mystifying, I was named interim president of the College. Other than hiring the worthy Dan Garvey to succeed me, my primary accomplishment as interim president was not to screw it up too badly. Once again I fled Prescott and the College never to return...

...until a few weeks ago when I jumped at the chance to serve as Director of Advancement and Alumni Relations.
